

STITCH OVERVIEW

The settings shown in the table below are our recommendations based on normal conditions. The correct tension is set automatically when using the Stitch Selection Dial. It may be necessary to adjust the thread tension according to the stitch, type of fabric and thread you are using. For best results make tension adjustments in small steps of no greater than half a number at a time. Always test sew on a sample of your fabric before sewing on your garment.

Different stitches are obtained by combining the stitch selection dial with different needle positions, threading methods, and the use of the 2-thread converter.
